Senior Class Play

BARBARA JOAN ANZENGRUBER

"Anzie" goes for "Blue Moon" and football. As for people who don't keep promises, "Geesh, what grouches!" Long after she attends college, Anzie will never forget her G.A.A. initiation.

LORETTA ANN BAKER

Ann cries, "You're right again," when someone mentions class rings. Her crystal ball is cloudy but at the moment she spends most of her time watching TV or listening to "St. Theresa of the Roses."

MARIE GERTRUDE BOWLING

A certain driver's training class inspires Marie to say "Dog-gone it!" A future telephone operator, Marie will spend her spare time watching TV or "Just Walking in the Rain."

MARTHA JANE BOWMASTER

Marty, who exclaims "Oh my goodness" when she remembers obtaining her driver's license, plans to be a secretary after graduation. Reading and hearing "Just Walking in the Rain" are among Marty's favorite pastimes.

MARY KATHERINE BOWMASTER

"Bow" enjoys reading and walking and exclaims "Holy Jumpin' Toledo" when she remembers Mr. Sheads' American history class. Interfering people annoy this future secretary who loves "Just Walking in the Rain."

ROBERT PAUL BOYER

Bob, who likes football better than anything else, plans to attend business school after graduation. He is most likely to be found roller skating or listening to "The Fool."

JOHN BENNER BREAM

John's pet peeve is women drivers, but in the same line, he most enjoys drag racing. This boy, who listens to "Green Door," plans to go into the service, specifically the Air Force after high school.

MARY ANNE BRENT

Mary Anne may be found enjoying a good TV program or skating but shouts "Jumpin' Geronimo" when she remembers finding Grant's Tomb on the battlefield during G.A.A. initiation. A nursing career is in the picture for Mary.

CAROL ANN BRUMBAUGH

Surprise quizzes aren't real neat to Carol, who most enjoys swimming, dancing, and sleeping. "Honky-Tonk" rates high on the hit parade for this girl who plans to continue her education in college after June.

MERLE D. BYERS

Merle most fondly remembers the F.F.A. trip to Michigan State College; and when not sleeping, likes to play baseball. His future plans are undecided, but he would like to see tourist drivers abolished.

JANE KATHLEEN CALLAHAN

Janie says "You goofed," to conceited people, but likes to listen to the radio and "Love Me Tender." A future beautician, Janie well remembers Mr. Sheads' history class and spends her spare time reading.

CARL ALLAN CAREY

"Stump," whose future plans include farming, loves to drive that Chevy and listen to "Ain't That a Shame." The party in Ag class is Stump's most memorable experience but he exclaims "Holy cats" when loudmouthed people come around.

JOSEPH EDWARD CLAPSADDLE

Joe, listening to "Canadian Sunset," tells us he most enjoys working as a mechanic. He remembers American history class and intends to go into the Air Force and later join the State Police.

JOHN GARFIELD CRIST

"You're gonna get bounced," says Jack when someone interrupts his being lazy. He figures "Never Let Me Go" way up on his hit parade and has most enjoyed basketball days in G.H.S.

CHARLES LEROY CULLISON

"Charlie" murmurs, "Well, now dig that," when anyone plays "Don't Be Cruel." Mr. Sheads' American history class rates high next to his favorite pastime (girls). Futurity for Charlie includes a term in the Navy.

JOSEPH PATRICK DEARING

"Joe" never yells "Stop that noise" when "Canadian Sunset" is heard. Going to football camp in his sophomore year is one of Joe's best memories, although he spends most of his time drawing and plans to become an artist or beautician.

ANNE HEATH ECKERT

"Doodles" thinks playing bridge with the "Four Aces" is "tremendous," but frowns on bandwagon people as much as she smiles when she hears "True Love." College is foremost in Anne's future.

LARRY ALBERT FETTER

"Rebel" declares that his pet peeve is Yankees. He passes the time singing and whistling—possibly "Dixie." Larry intends to enlist in the Armed Forces. He leaves this word of advice for his fellow rebels "Save your Confederate money, boys, for the South shall rise again."

KATHRYN LOUISE FLEMING

"Picking stones off the hockey field" is Kathy's main memory. She enjoys reading and listening to popular music, especially "True Love." Kathy clamors, "Check that, won't you?" at sweaters with cotton skirts. Kathy's future features nursing at York.

DONALD EVERETTE FORSYTHE

"Tremendous" is Don't comment on his eighth grade year. He rates "The Lord's Prayer" and "My Prayer" tops in music and plans for college or a farm career. One may find Don impersonating singers or participating in sports.

SHIRLEY ANN FOX

"Toad" mutters "Cut it out" when teachers begin piling on extra projects. She loves "Oklahoma," tennis, and riding around in the yellow Ford. Toad's favorite memory of G.H.S. is sitting beside Susan in choir. She plans college after graduation.

JOHN CLAIR GEYER

John's favorite pastime (reading hot-rod books) seems to fit in with his favorite sport (drag racing). He murmurs "Okay, kid" when "Love Me Tender" is played and remembers American history with glee. John's future is undecided.

JOYCE LOUISE GULDEN

Joyce likes to listen to pop records, especially "Tonight You Belong to Me," and plans to become a secretary. The remembrance of getting a certificate of achievement for selling magazines brings a cry of "Holy Cow," from Joyce.

RONALD LEE HANKEY

Hank's future wavers between engineering and teaching, but there's nothing undecided about his favorite pastime (watching girls). However, to stuck-up girls Hank exclaims, "You Ain't Nothin' But a Hound-dog." He well remembers American history class.

JANET HAY

Janet wonders, "uh oh! Look what I've done now" when snobbish people shun her. Have Mr. Sheads' history classes inspired her to watch TV and try to roller skate? Where's the catch? Janet's future lies in being a medical secretary.

DAVID HEAGY

To "Turk," stuck-up girls can breeze over yonder in "The Wayward Wind." Getting his terrific, tremendous hot-rod ready for the F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City was quite a memorable experience. A naval career and farming rank high in Turk's future plans.

RALPH HEFFNER

"From the Candy Store on the Corner to the Chapel on the Hill," "Heff" envisions a certain girl. "Heff" delights in working on cars and perceives a job at about 80 bucks a week.

ROSALIE ELIZABETH HENDERSON

Rosalie, when seeing "Elvis Presley," utters sarcastically, "Well, dig that!" She'll never forget the wonderful way the students greeted her as a new student. "You'll Never Walk Alone" in G.H.S.

LARRY HERRING

"Hairpie" utters a sullen "humm!" when he pensively recalls those bus trips with the band. Girls who swear don't rate in his book. Larry plans to attend college at Penn State.

ROBERT HESS

"Bob" loves to recall that defeat over Hershey in '56. The best place for girls who smoke, according to Bob, is behind the "Green Door." Bob is disturbed by the "chip, chip, chip" of a hammer when he dreams of his future plans to become a mason.

JOHN HEWETSON

"John" detests the cracking of gum while he calmly retires to an evening of reading or listening to Nocturne in E. His transfer to G.H.S. will long be remembered. Engineering is the field of John's choice in the future.

SHIRLEY HEWITT

No feminine "Great Pretender" who smokes or drinks can rate in "Skip's" book. She exclaims, "How about that!" when she recalls the day she cantered into the boys' locker room by mistake. Shirley aspires to be a fashion artist.

GENE HOAK

"Listen, buddy, ya better cut out those slang expressions!" says Gene. Playing tennis, swimming, and collaborating are his favorite pastimes. He murmurs, "My Prayer" is to succeed in engineering at Drexel.

JOHN HUFFAKER

"Tex" will plead "Love Me Tender" as those Army sergeants induct him into engineering as a career. He exclaims "Ah nuts" when snobbish girls float by. His first day at G.H.S. affords a pleasant memory.

FREDERIC HUGHES, JR.

Fred is quite sure that Elvis Presley is behind the "Green Door." Hunting, trapping and fishing occupy Fred's leisure time. Does he listen to E. Presley's records? "That'll be the day," exclaims this future college boy.

MARY ALICE JOHNS

"Gee whiz," exclaims Mary Alice, "Here comes another pair of Bermuda shorts." The Senior Prom of '56 affords pleasant memories. Mary Alice plans to become a beautician after high school.

DOROTHY JOHNSON

Dottie ran rings around the "short boys" at that "certain wedding." "Love Me Tender" drives those "ah bedbugs" from her head. A career as a nurse is her future plan.

PAUL JONES

Nothing really peeves Paul, except maybe, poor contrast on one of his favorite negatives. He also likes to reminisce getting acquainted at G.H.S. Paul will study medicine after graduation.

KERMIT KANE

Women drivers irk "Kerm." His favorite pastime is hunting and he intends to go into forestry work. Basketball is just great!

NANCY KELLEY

"Sis" thinks that "Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing," especially her love for the senior year at G.H.S. She avoids "conceited people" by finding a quiet nook in which to listen to records. Nancy aspires to be a secretary.

CAROLYN KETTERMAN

"Only You" temperamental people don't rate in Carolyn's book. However, her memories of State Band and eating ice cream do. Secretarial work is included in her outlook for the future.

DAVID KIME

"Aw shut up," ejaculates Slim, when those women drivers honk their horns. He loves to go hunting with his "Hound Dog." We wish him "good luck" in the insurance business.

JOHN KING

"Holy mackerel" yelped Kingie, as those "Big Reds" charged at him in his first football game. Girls who smoke don't rate but Presley's "Don't Be Cruel" does. John will join the Air Force after graduation.

THOMAS KITZMILLER

"Kitzie" asks that "conceited people" be removed from his presence while he takes a nap. He dreams of basketball and his nightmare at G.H.S., although he plans to attend college in the future.

SUSAN KORTE

Sue exclaims, "How about that," when reminded of nightly sessions with Mr. Troxell. This red-headed lass loves to go horseback riding, but she can do without mosquitoes. College is ahead.

DARLENE KROUSHOUR

Darlene's notice to all "conceited people": "It's later than you think." She thrills to dancing under the "Canadian Sunset." Becoming a beautician is her goal for the future.

JANET KUYKENDALL

"Ah heck!" exclaims Kirk, "Why do teachers dictate?" That was quite a Lions show, eh Kirk? In the future, she plans to work as a salesgirl.

JOAN LANK

"My soul!" utters Joan, "What are we going to do about these deadline skippers?" Boots will always remember "being chosen editor of M. and W." Joan wishes to attend college in preparation for elementary teaching.

JUANITA LARMER

Juanita tells "back seat drivers" not to get smart. She likes to recall the three-day vacations from school. She plans to work as a telephone operator after graduation.

DOROTHY LAWTHER

"You oughta know that" conceited people don't rate with Dottie. Dancing and playing records are her favorite pastimes.

RHETA LaRUTH LeGORE

"Ruth" exclaims, "Oh my gosh!" when she recalls working as Mr. Forney's secretary. Snobs and gossipers aren't her "True Love" but Elvis Presley's records are! Ruth aspires to become a secretary.

CHARLES HARMON LIGHTNER

Football, loafing and "The High and the Mighty" rate well up on Charlie's list. He turns thumbs down on characters who think they're P.C.'s and grins a fatalistic "That's The Way It Goes" when he thinks of a wedding and a bashed-in car door. College is just around the corner.

GLENN WILLIAM LITTLE

"Glennie" thinks "Green Door," his junior year, and working on cars are tremendous. Though his future is undecided, we know it doesn't hold room for stuck-up people.

MARY ELLEN LUCKENBAUGH

Playing the piano, ice skating, and "Love Me Tender" rate high with this Future Beauty Culturist. She grimaces at the thought of back seat drivers, but pleasantly recalls getting her degrees in Home Economics.

PATRICIA ANN McFEATERS

"You Don't Know Me" says Pat to someone who can't keep a secret. She exclaims "Oh Gee!" at the thought of her first day in G.H.S. Reading and skating are the pastimes of this future secretary.

LeROY MARTIN

Though LeRoy's dislikes include girls who drink and smoke, his favorite pastime is one special girl who can cook. This football fan plans factory work after graduation.

MARY ROSALENE MASON

"Mary" shouts "ach! Fiddle dee-dee!" at finding a toothpaste tube squeezed in the middle. This future nurse will always remember: passing French; reading; golf, and good music.

EUGENE FRANCIS MEADE

"Gene" considers "Ebb Tide" and Al Hibler as his musical favorites, while boxing and reading share the limelight. He blacklists flattery and insincerity, but Ralph Waldo Emerson's essay on "Self Reliance" has special meaning. He plans education and military service.

LUCY JANE MEHRING

"Luce," a future nurse, remembers Mr. Sheads' American history class, reading, and baseball while, "Counting her Blessings." She mutters "For Heaven's Sake" at gossiping people.

GLENDA LOUISE MILLER

A future airline hostess, "Glenn's" favorite memories include trips with the band, horseback riding, and "To Love Again."

THOMAS H. MILLER

Though Tom holds fond memories of Miss Mac's English class, his future doesn't include auto mechanics, hunting, "Dixie," and "doing tasks immediately."

KATRINA ELIZABETH MYERS

Leisure time will "probably" find "Teeny" swimming or playing records. This future typist will forget girls who smoke and drink but she'll always remember the sessions at Bill's.

DAVID LOUELL NETT

"Dave" will always remember selling peanuts for the band and he'll never forget those tourist drivers, whom he shrugs away with a cheerful "Well, that's life." "Moonglow" and football rate high with him.

RUTH ANN PAINTER

"Ann's" "True Love" might be swimming, pestering or the football player No. 40 of 1955, but weekend homework is not "dear" to this future secretary.

ELIZABETH ANN PENNINGTON

"B. A." will give a cheery "That's the most to say the least" when she thinks of her ninth grade civics teacher, Mel Ferrer, or "Canadian Sunset." Her future excludes chem tests, but has lots of room for volleyball, swimming, college, and that yellow Ford.

BARBARA ALLEN PETERS

"Barbie" exclaims "Oh Man!" at the thought of being Mr. Schriver's secretary. This "Johnny Ray" fan also digs basketball and roller skating but doesn't like flirts. She plans to join the Navy.

HARRY LUTHER PETERS, JR.

"Harry" likes: down-to-earth folks; Que Sera, Sera; baseball; and mechanics. He shouts "Jemminy Christmas" when he thinks of graduating or tinkering with inventions.

CLETUS RINEHART PLANK, JR.

When "Bud's" ire is aroused, "You Squirrel" can be heard, but the strains of farming, football, or Que Sera, Sera, never seem to tire him. Though English class is hard work, he'll be glad when he gets that diploma.

ALBERT POOLE

"Barney" won't tolerate those tourist drivers. To wise guys, he says, "I'm from Missouri, you'll have to show me."

JUANITA NELL PRICE

"Rebel" thinks Elvis singing "Blue Moon" is "real cool." Swimming, horse races and jazz please this future model. Though she finds ordinary Yankee boys distasteful, she'll always remember the Delone football game of 1955.

RICHARD EARL PYLE, JR.

"Pooney" dislikes squares, hillbilly music, and fumbling footballs. His pastimes include drag racing, working on his hot-rod, or whistling "In the Still of the Night." Old "cheese 'n' crackers" plans to go to trade school.

CAROLYN ELIZABETH RAFFENSPERGER

"Raffie's" favorites include "Harbor Lights," dancing, and eating. She will always remember being chosen majorette and she'll never forget some conceited classmates. "Baby Doll's" future holds a ring, a request, etc., etc., etc.

FLORENCE ONEIDA REAVER

Florence exclaims "Gee Whiz!" when she recalls getting her driver's license. She likes to sew, play volleyball and listen to Doris Day, but doesn't seek the company of "stuck-up" people.

MARY KATHERINE REAVER

"Nuts!" says Mary to conceited folks. Driving around, "Walkin' in the Rain," or playing volleyball interest her. She'll remember May of 1955.

ELAINE MARIE REBERT

"Lefty" doesn't dig "damaging remarks" or squares who won't crack their gum. "In the Still of the Night," basketball, dancing, and a trip to Hershey via Lebanon will make her smile. She plans to be a secretary.

SANDRA KAY REDDING

"Sandy" enjoys listening to popular songs but vetoes girls who smoke and drink. October 27, 1956, was her "Oh Sugar" day. Sandy hopes to become a secretary.

LOIS JANE RICE

Line jumpers antagonize "Lois" just as much as long assignments. When dating a certain blond, she wonders "How Far Is Heaven?" Lois aspires to become a telephone operator.

MARY ANN RIDER

Mary Ann doesn't like stuck-up people knocking at her "Green Door." Who told you about those Business English classes? As a future private secretary, Mary Ann intends to listen to the radio in her free time.

LARRY GEORGE RIEGLE

"Raza" avoids wise guys and their "Mountain Dew." He knows service life will be "tough"; nevertheless, he hopes they don't restrict his eating.

JEAN ELAINE RILEY

"Jeannie" says, "I reckon gym class and stuck-up people will have to go." She is "Shooting High" to become a private secretary. Singing at the Spring Concert was indeed a memorable occasion.

SHIRLEY SANDERS

Mrs. Joseph's typing class is the greatest to Shirley, especially because she doesn't get any homework. She hopes to become a secretary. Pop music is real gone.

DAVID HERBERT SCHMIDT

"Schmidty" never "takes off tomorrow when he can today." When he bumps into tourist drivers he thinks they need American history instructions. Schmidty is undecided about the "After Hour Stuff."

PHILIP EDWARD SCOTT

"Phil" greets his friends with "Do you have your homework done?" When Phil goes to college he won't be wearing Bermuda shorts. His favorite pastime is horseback riding.

WILLIAM SCOTT

"Scottie" just can't digest ————————. When he isn't working, he spends his time swimming.

PAULA FRANCES SHEFFER

Paula pleads, " 'Tenderly' on those P.D. Quizzes." Reading and ice skating are among the favorites of this future nurse. When asked what she remembers most in G.H.S., she replies, "Don't you know! The first day of my senior year."

WILDA RUTH SIMPSON

Wilda recalls picking stones off the hockey field. When someone says field hockey, she says "Oh! Gee—for me." "I Believe" reading is her favorite pastime. Wilda aspires to become a secretary.

MARY JANE SMITH

"Sis" pleads, "Don't Be Cruel" to girls who insist on wearing wool sweaters with cotton skirts. Listening to E.P.'s records is real gone to Sis. She hopes to become a secretary.

SALLY ANN SMITH

"Smitty" remembers her first prom as "Neat!" "You'll Never Walk Alone," says Smitty, if you don't use profanity. This future elementary schoolteacher spends her leisure time plunking on the piano.

FAYE SNEAD

This helpful secretary ignores all gossipers. Sneadie digs "True Love" the most, while listening to other pop records. Those American history classes have reserved a permanent place in her memories.

JUNE SPEELMAN

A beauty career is in store for June. Playing hillbilly records occupies her spare time, but she has no time for drinking girls. "I've known you from somewhere" is her favorite!!!

SHIRLEY TEMPLE SPEELMAN

Conceited people don't rate in Shirley's book. She loves to sing and dance and what does she say about "Pink Cadillac?" "Holy Toledo!" Shirley will never forget the sixth period in her junior year.

DONNA LEE SPENCE

Spency pleads, "Go Tenderly" on those dirty saddles. Her future holds college and a merry round of football games, pennants, and dancing. September 14, 1956, will never be forgotten.

HARMON LINN SPENCE

Spencie digs baseball and hunting and was shocked into saying, "Well, I'll be" when he played for the first time in a baseball game as a freshman. Spencie, who votes thumbs down on girls who smoke and drink, plans to attend business school.

JANET EILEEN STAIGER

"Jan" assures you that tests aren't her "True Love," Spanish class is just "Great!" and Jan may decide to teach it. Horseback riding and "He" occupy free time.

JEANNE ELDA STAIGER

Basketball and dancing move Jeannie. Her most memorable experience was the G.A.A. initiation, which she sums up as "Great." "I Believe" her crystal ball portrays nursing at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

SHIRLEY ANN STERNER

Shirley shoos gossipers with a disgusted "My Gosh!" November 12, 1956, disposed of Shirley's "Unchained Melody." This basketball fan intends to be a secretary and "you know what else."

DORIS CATHERINE STONER

"Dorsie" just loves "Love Me Tender," by the man Elvis Presley. Girls who smoke and drink are taboo as far as this future coed is concerned. Those hilarious nights with Rosie will never be forgotten.

ANNETTE LOUISE STOUGH

Louise just can't focus her eyes on a print and plaid ensemble. When not ice skating or swimming she likes to spend her time waiting for "Oh! Dad-ee O." Being a beautician or housewife isn't too far off.

JANET JAYNE STUCKEY

Water skiing on some "Ebb Tide" is thrilling to "J. J." She shuns thick-headed people and plans a commercial art career. "Wow!" those last two years.

ADRIENNE LOUISE TAYLOR

"Drenie" vetoes prejudiced people, but there's always room for dancing and daydreaming. A "Casual Look" into her future reveals a man and . . . (?) "Say" did you know Drenie was student teacher for Latin II?

HILDA MAE TIPTON

Roller skating is one of Peggy's favorite pastimes. Conceited people find no tolerance here. "My Word," says Peg. She plans to attend York Nursing School.

ROBERT HAROLD TOPPER

"Cool yourself," demands Topper of fluttery little girls. Bob spends his spare time driving around in his car "In the Still of the Night!" The Armed Forces is just around the corner.

JOYCE ANNETTE VANDERWALL

Joyce has a particular aversion to nosy people. Watching TV and playing badminton are just tops and so is "I Want You, I Need You, I Love You." Joyce's future plans include Shippensburg State Teachers College and marriage.

JON PARKER WAGNILD

"Wags" decides, "Nuts!" to girls who are silly one minute, sophisticated the next. He plays the piano in his free time, and really goes for "Rhapsody in Blue." Wags recalls the National Student Council Convention in Ohio, as his memorable experience.

JOHN HERMAN WEBER

John will never forget the F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City. Stuck-up people peeve him, but he really goes for "Friendly Persuasion." John plans to go into farming.

DAVID WEIKERT

Dave spends his spare time and a little more loafing. If he isn't playing tiddly-winks, Dave plans to study electrical engineering at Drexel.

FAYE REBECCA WENSCHHOF

"Peetie" would like to spend her spare time driving her car under the "Canadian Sunset." When asked about her experience of typing G. K.'s manuscript in typing, Faye exclaims Row-dee-dow!!!

BILLIE BURKE WEST

Bill has two words for people who think they are so much more than others, "Drop Dead." She'll always remember her experiences in American history class. Billie's crystal ball reveals marriage and somebody who'll "Love Me Tender."

JOHN WHEELER

Johnnie exclaims, "Cheese and Crackers" at all members of the female class. He spends his spare time loafing and listening to "Blueberry Hill."

ROSE MARIE WHITED

Rosie is far from using "Friendly Persuasion" when a certain person had to work on Saturday nights. "How about that" Pontiac that used to take them to the away games.

DONNA WICKER

Talking on the phone is "Neat!" to Donna. She'll never forget those American history classes even after she becomes a medical technician. "Claire de Lune" will always rank in her hit parade. R.P.M.T. is without a doubt her pet peeve!!!

LAURA WILKINSON

Shortie dislikes smoking and drinking, but Elvis Presley's "Love Me Tender" ranks high. And what is this future secretary's most memorable experience? "Oh, gee!" those junior English classes.

BARBARA WILSON

Barbie can't get over being chosen "head majorette," but she cannot stand people tripping over her baton at football games. She likes to spend her spare time playing the piano and plans on becoming a private secretary.

NANCY JOAN WOLFF

Nancy loves to go horseback riding, perhaps under the "Blue Moon." This future coed has one word about her ninth grade Civics teacher—"What?"

PAULINE WYATT

Polly intends to become a secretary in the future. Snobs and gossipers are only troublemakers, says she. As for "Love Me Tender," it's the greatest.

ROBERT ZIEGLER

Bob won't tolerate people who don't cooperate in his commercial photography career. "You'll Never Walk Alone" moves this spendthrift. Upon discovering ammonia in his car after a victorious football game, he exclaimed, "Darn it."

ADMINISTRATION

H. Edgar Riegle
Superintendent

Graduates from high school are always reminded, and rightly so, that they are leaving school to find their places in a rapidly changing world. This is true but it should not be a cause for alarm.

Each year from the beginning of time life and its problems has been different than that of the preceding year. We have come to accept this fact and adjust to it because we know there are many basic factors which exist through all time.

There always will be an important place in life for the person who is willing to work and who is sincere, loyal, honest, and dependable. We believe your school experience has helped to develop in you these qualities and characteristics and that you will reveal them in your daily associations as you go on from here.

Our best wishes for a happy and successful life after graduation are extended to each one of you.

H. Edgar Riegle
Superintendent

You have been schooled in this free society of our democratic nation, here all people are free and equal in their rights and responsibilities.

You should have gotten a basic foundation upon which to build future formal and practical training.

You will have to learn how to live and to take advantage of the opportunities the world offers you, to select the right and reject the wrong.

Your success will depend on the use you make of your talents and training. Our best wishes go with you.

Educated People Save

It is told that Indians of Paraguay plowed all day with oxen and then killed the oxen for supper. The primitive mind gave no thought to the morrow.

The habit of saving is the mark of the educated man and woman. Also, it is one of the privileges enjoyed in a free America.
